PROFILE

Interior Design student with a passion for creating innovative, refined, functional, and highly personalized interiors seeking an internship with a residential interior design firm. Brings a unique background in court reporting where precision, reliability, organization, and deadline-driven collaboration were essential. Eager to apply my strong attention to detail, adaptability, and creative problem-solving to space planning, finish curation, and client-centered residential design.

EXPERIENCE

■ Official Court Reporter, U.S. Federal Court 2012 to February 2026

- Reported high-profile court cases, prepared verbatim transcripts under strict deadlines
- Collaborated with a team to serve the court and clients in a high-pressure
- Demonstrated focus, accuracy, and reliability while managing multiple cases concurrently
- Mentored other reporters and helped troubleshoot technical issues
- Ensured deliverables were completed on time, tracked invoices
- Communicated with clients to make sure their needs were met
- Earned multiple awards and recognitions for high-quality work

■ Freelance Court Reporter and Broadcast Captioner
